

Tuesday 23 - Thursday 25 October 2018

A three day family event exploring the art of protest.
Take part in a range of thought provoking activities including craft, music and storytelling.

Daily: Tuesday 23 - Thursday 25 October

Protest point: art activity

11.00-16.00, Great Court West
Create your own mini artwork and add it to our large 3D art installation.
Most suitable for ages 6+

Fabric of 1000 voices: craft activity

11.00-16.00, Great Court East
What do you object to?
Add your voice to our collaborative artwork.
Most suitable for ages 6+

Tree of change: craft activity

11.00-16.00, Great Court East
What would you like to change?
Add a message to our tree of change.
Suitable for all ages

Family trails

10.00-17.00, Information Desk, Great Court
Explore the galleries, look for objects and find out about people and places from the past.

Please stay with your children at all times.

Tuesday 23 October

Singing out: performance

13.00, 14.00 (30 mins), Great Court
Listen to some voices raised in song and find out about the art of folk protest.
In association with Cecil Sharp House Choir
Suitable for all ages

We object rosette: craft activity

11.00-16.00, Great Court East
Make a protest rosette to wear home.
Suitable for all ages

Wednesday 24 October

Pop-up protest: craft activity

10.00-11.00, Room 35
Explore how objects have been used to express dissent and then make a badge inspired by what you have seen.
Most suitable for 5+

Tales of protest: storytelling

11.45, 14.00, 15.00 (40 mins), Room 1
Listen to stories where characters speak their minds and make some changes.
Suitable for all ages

Global protest: art activity

11.00-16.00, Great Court East
Make something to add to our global protest art work or take it home as a memento of your protest.
In association with the October Gallery
Suitable for all ages

Thursday 25 October

Tales of protest: storytelling

11.45, 14.00, 15.00 (40 mins), Room 24
Listen to stories where characters don't agree, change their minds and make a fuss!
Suitable for all ages

We object rosette: craft activity

11.00-16.00, Great Court East
Make a protest rosette to wear home.
Suitable for all ages